

Friends of the Duncanville Public Library

Who are the Friends?

The Friends are a non-profit community organization composed of active, dedicated people from all walks of life. Their common bond is a desire that Duncanville have a first-rate library capable of serving an ever expanding population.

The Friends hold meetings four times a year on the fourth Tuesday of the month at 7:00 pm at the library.

Goals

- Encouraging public understanding and appreciation of our library.
- Financing library requirements not provided for in the annual budget.
- Stimulating public support through donations of equipment and gifts of money, memorials, and bequests.
