

News Release

Citizen Input Needed for Downtown Element of the Comprehensive Plan; Downtown Stakeholders Meeting Set for October 12, 2016, 7 p.m., D.L. Hopkins, Jr. Senior Center

What: The City of Duncanville will host a Downtown Stakeholders Meeting to seek citizen input on the downtown element of the Comprehensive Plan. The intent is to discuss the existing Downtown District boundary, challenges and opportunities for future development within downtown. The meeting is geared toward property owners and business owners within the Downtown District but is open to the public.

The meeting will be an opportunity for citizens to participate in interactive exercises and discussion facilitated by the consultant, Freese and Nichols, Inc. The goal of the meeting is to walk away with a basis of understanding of what the community deems as important as it relates to downtown Duncanville.

Community participation through events like the Downtown Stakeholders Meeting is vital for the comprehensive plan development process. For more information on the Comprehensive Plan, please visit: www.DestinationDuncanville.com.

When: Wednesday, October 12, 2016; check-in begins at 6:30 p.m., meeting begins at 7:00 p.m.

Where: D.L. Hopkins Senior Center, 206 James Collins Blvd, Duncanville, TX 75116

The meeting is being hosted in partnership with the consultant Freese and Nichols, Inc., which has offices around the country and throughout the State.