The poster for the Smokin' Blues & BBQ Festival features a central graphic of a blue electric guitar with the text 'SMOKIN' BLUES & BBQ FESTIVAL' overlaid. The word 'SMOKIN'' is in red, 'BLUES &' is in blue, and 'BBQ FESTIVAL' is in red. To the left is the Lions Club logo, and to the right is the International Brotherhood of Barbecue Cookers Association logo. Below the main title is the website 'www.smokinbluesbbqfest.com' and a note to visit online for details. The event dates are April 22-23, 2016, at Armstrong Park, 100 James Collins Blvd, Duncanville, TX 75116. The entry fee is $125 for all meat categories and $10 for jackpot beans. A 100% payback and added money for the Kroger People's Choice Contest are also mentioned. The festival includes a Kid's Cook Off, Live Blues Bands, and 50/50. Meat categories are Brisket, Pork Spare Ribs, and 1/2 Chicken. There are limited RV spaces available, and early registration is encouraged. Teams can arrive on Friday, April 22, 2016, and set up after 9 AM. Five festival wristbands are provided for each team registration, covering access to all live entertainment, vendors, arts & crafts, and the kid's zone. The poster also includes contact information for Jeff Burton and three small photos: a man in a red shirt and white hat, a close-up of a blue star on a metal surface, and a woman cooking at a table.
